

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TADJIKISTAN ON THE PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

Signed at Dushanbe July 14, 1995
Entered into force August 13, 1995

The Government of the Republic of Korea and the Government of the Republic of Tajikistan (hereinafter referred to as "the Contracting Parties"),

Desiring to intensify economic cooperation between the two States,

Intending to create favourable conditions for investments by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party on the basis of equality and mutual benefit, and

Recognizing that the promotion and protection of investments on the basis of this Agreement stimulates business initiative in this field,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1 Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement:

1. "Investments" means every kind of assets invested by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and in particular, though not exclusively, includes:

- a) movable and immovable property and any other property rights such as mortgages, liens or pledges;
- b) shares in, stocks and debentures of, and any other form of participation in a company or any business enterprise;
- c) claims to money or to any performance under contract having a financial value;
- d) intellectual property rights including rights with respect to copyrights, patents, trademarks, trade names, industrial designs, technical processes, trade secrets and know-how, and goodwill;
- e) business concessions having a financial value conferred by law or under contract, including concessions to search for, cultivate, extract or exploit natural resources;
- f) goods that, under a leasing contract, are placed at the disposal of a lessee in the territory of a Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations.

Any change of the form in which assets are invested or reinvested shall not affect their character as an investment.

2. "Returns" means the amounts yielded by investments and, in particular, though not exclusively, includes profit, interest, capital gains, dividends, royalties and all kinds of fees.

3. "Investors" means any natural or juridical persons who invest in the territory of the other Contracting Party:

- a) the term "natural persons" means natural persons having the nationality (or citizenship) of that Contracting Party in accordance with its laws;
- b) the term "juridical persons" means any companies, organizations, corporations or associations incorporated or constituted in accordance with the laws and regulations of that Contracting Party.

4. "Territory" means the territory of the Republic of Korea or the territory of the Republic of Tajikistan respectively, as well as those maritime areas, including the seabed and subsoil adjacent to the outer limit of the territorial sea of the above territories over which the State concerned exercises, in accordance with international law, sovereign rights for the purpose of exploration and exploitation of the natural resources of such areas.

5. "Freely convertible currency" means the currency that is widely used to make payments for international transactions and widely exchanged in principal international exchange markets.

Article 2 Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall encourage and create favourable conditions for investors of the other Contracting Party to make investments in its territory and shall admit such investments in accordance with its laws and regulations.
2. Investments made by investors of each Contracting Party shall at all times be accorded fair and equitable treatment, and shall enjoy full protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

Article 3 Treatment of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory accord to investments and returns of investors of the other Contracting Party treatment which is fair and equitable and no less favourable than that which it accords to investments and returns of its own investors or to investments and returns of investors of any other State, whichever is more favourable to investors.
2. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory accord to investors of the other Contracting Party, as regards management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of their investments, treatment which is fair and equitable and no less favourable than that which it accords to its own investors or to investors of any other State, whichever is more favourable to investors.
3. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to investors of the other Contracting Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from any international agreement or arrangement relating wholly or mainly to taxation or any domestic legislation relating wholly or mainly to taxation.

Article 4 Compensation for Losses

1. Investors of one Contracting Party whose investments suffer losses owing to war or other armed conflict, a state of national emergency, revolt, insurrection, riot or other similar situations in the territory of the other Contracting Party, shall be accorded by the other Contracting Party treatment, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or other forms of settlement, no less favourable than that which the latter Contracting Party accords to its own investors or to investors of any other State. Resulting payments shall be freely transferable without undue delay.
2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1 of this Article, investors of one Contracting Party who, in any of the situations referred to in that paragraph, suffer losses in the territory of the other Contracting Party resulting from:
 - a) requisitioning of their property by its forces or authorities; or
 - b) destruction of their property by its forces or authorities which was not caused in combat action or was not required by the necessity of the situation,shall be accorded restitution or adequate compensation no less favourable than that would be accorded under the same circumstances to investors of the other Contracting Party or to investors of any other State. Resulting payments shall be freely transferable without undue delay.

Article 5 Expropriation

- 1 Investments of investors of one Contracting Party shall not be nationalized, expropriated or otherwise subjected to any other measure having an effect equivalent to nationalization or expropriation (hereinafter referred to as "Expropriation") in the territory of the other Contracting Party, except for public purpose and against prompt, adequate and effective compensation. The expropriation shall be carried out on a non-discriminatory basis in accordance with legal procedures.

2. Such compensation shall amount to the fair market value of the expropriated investments immediately before expropriation was taken or before impending expropriation became public knowledge, whichever is the earlier, shall include interest at the applicable commercial rate from the date of expropriation, and shall be made without undue delay, be effectively realizable and be freely transferable.

3. Investors of one Contracting Party affected by expropriation shall have a right to prompt review, by a judicial or other independent authority of the other Contracting Party, of their case and of the valuation of their investments in accordance with the principles set out in this Article.

4. Where a Contracting Party expropriates assets of a company which is incorporated or constituted under its laws and regulations and in which investors of the other Contracting Party participate or own shares, the provisions of this Article shall be applied.

Article 6 Transfers

1. Each Contracting Party shall guarantee the free transfers of payments related to investments and returns. Such transfers shall include, in particular, though not exclusively:

- a) net profit, capital gains, dividends, interest, royalties, fees and any other current income accruing from investments;
- b) proceeds accruing from the sale or the total or partial liquidation of investments;
- c) funds in repayment of loans related to investments;
- d) earnings of nationals of the other Contracting Party who are allowed to work in connection with investments in its territory;
- e) additional funds necessary for the maintenance or development of the existing investments;
- f) compensation pursuant to Articles 4 and 5.

2. All transfers under this Agreement shall be made in a freely convertible currency, without undue restriction and delay, at the exchange rate which is effective for the current transactions or determined in accordance with the official rate of exchange in force on the date of transfers.

Article 7 Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment to its own investors under an indemnity given in respect of investments, the latter Contracting Party shall recognize:

- a) the assignment, whether under the law or pursuant to a legal transaction in that State, of any right or claim from investors to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency; and
- b) that the former Contracting Party or its designated agency is entitled by virtue of subrogation to exercise the rights and enforce the claims of those investors.

Article 8 Settlement of Investment Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

1. Any dispute between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party including expropriation or nationalization of investments shall, as far as possible, be settled by the parties to the dispute in an amicable way.

2. The local remedies under the laws and regulations of one Contracting Party in the territory of which the investment has been made are available for investors of the other Contracting Party on the basis of treatment no less favourable than that accorded to investments of its own investors or investors of any other State, whichever is more favorable to investors.

3. If the dispute cannot be settled within six (6) months from the date on which the dispute has been raised by either party, it shall be submitted upon request of either of the parties to the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) established by the Washington Convention of 18 March 1965 on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States, in the event the Republic of Tajikistan becomes a party to this Convention. Until that moment the dispute shall be submitted to conciliation or arbitration procedure to be mutually agreed upon on the basis of the Convention or Additional Facility.

4. The award made by ICSID shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute. Each Contracting Party shall ensure the recognition and enforcement of the award in accordance with its relevant laws and regulations.

Article 9 Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, if possible, be settled through consultation or diplomatic channels.

2. If any dispute cannot be settled within six (6) months, it shall, at the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an ad hoc Arbitral Tribunal in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

3. Such an Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way:

Within two (2) months from the date of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the Tribunal. These two members shall then select a national of a third State, who on approval of the two Contracting Parties shall be appointed Chairman of the Tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within two(2) months from the date of appointment of the other two members.

4. If within the periods specified in paragraph 3 of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, a request may be made by either Contracting Party to the President of the International Court of Justice to make such appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President shall be invited to make the appointments. If the Vice-President also is a national of either Contracting Party or otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party, shall be invited to make the appointments.

5. The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding on both Contracting Parties.

6. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of its own arbitrator and its representation in the arbitral proceedings; the costs of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by both Contracting Parties. The Tribunal may, however, in its decision direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two Contracting Parties.

7. The Arbitral Tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

Article 10 Application of Other Rules

1. Where a matter is governed simultaneously both by this Agreement and by another international agreement to which both Contracting Parties are parties, or by general principles of international law, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent either Contracting Party or any of its investors from taking advantage of whichever rules are the more favourable to his case.

2. If the treatment to be accorded by one Contracting Party to investors of the other Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations or other specific provisions or contracts is more favourable than that accorded by this Agreement, the more favourable treatment shall be accorded.

3. Either Contracting Party shall observe any other obligation it may have entered into with regard to investments in its territory by investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 11
Application of the Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to all investments, whether made before or after its entry into force, but shall not apply to any dispute concerning investments which was settled before its entry into force.

Article 12
Entry into Force, Duration and Termination

1. This Agreement shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the date of signature.

2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of fifteen (15) years and shall remain in force thereafter indefinitely, unless either Contracting Party notifies the other Contracting Party in writing one year in advance of its intention to terminate this Agreement.

3. In respect of investments made prior to termination of this Agreement, the provisions of Article 1 to 11 of this Agreement shall remain in force for a further period of twenty (20) years from the date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.

DONE in duplicate at Dushanbe on the 14th day of July, 1995, in the Korean, Tajik, English and Russian languages, all texts being equally authentic. In case of any divergence of interpretation, the English text shall prevail.
